

Employing in Georgia

What You Need to Know · Employment Hero HeroForce EOR · July 2026

What does the EOR handle for you?

- Employment contracts — compliant contracts under the Georgian Labour Code
- Monthly payroll — salary payments in GEL, itemised payslips
- Tax withholding — flat 20% personal income tax withheld and remitted monthly
- Pension contribution — the 2% employer match into the accumulative pension scheme
- Leave and termination management — notice periods and entitlements guidance

Employment Conditions

Contracts & Probation

Georgia's statutory minimum wage (GEL 20/month) is a legal relic with no practical effect on the labour market — the real wage floor is set entirely by market forces, not law.

Item	Detail	Legal Basis
Statutory minimum wage	GEL 20/month — has no practical effect; real market floor for formal roles is GEL 800–1,200/month depending on location	Labour Code (nominal figure only)
Probation period	Maximum 6 months	Labour Code
Standard hours	8 hrs/day, 40 hrs/week	Labour Code

Employer Contributions (2026)

Measure	Rate	Notes
Pension contribution (employer)	2% of gross salary	Only applies for Georgian resident employees; non-residents are exempt, reducing employer cost to near-zero above gross
Personal income tax	20% flat rate	Applies to salaries, bonuses and most other employment compensation, resident or non-resident

At roughly 2% employer overhead, Georgia has one of the lowest statutory employer costs in Europe or the Caucasus — substantially below EU averages of 20%-30% and below regional peers such as Armenia or Turkey.

Leave Entitlements

Leave Type	Entitlement	Who Pays	Key Condition
Annual Leave	Minimum 24 calendar days/year	Employer	Labour Code minimum
Unpaid Leave	Minimum 15 calendar days/year	Unpaid	Statutory entitlement, separate from annual leave
Maternity/Adoption Leave	183 days (200 for complications/multiples)	State allowance (capped, modest)	Job-protected

★ HERO TIP

Georgia's pension contribution applies only to Georgian residents — many foreign professionals hired remotely may be exempt entirely, reducing employer statutory cost to close to zero above gross salary. This makes Georgia one of the simplest and most cost-efficient formal employment frameworks in the region, but always confirm the employee's residency status with your HeroForce EOR, since it directly changes the cost calculation.

Payroll, Tax & Contributions

Total Cost Example — USD $3,000 Gross Monthly Salary

Cost Item	Amount (USD)	% of Gross
Gross salary	$3,000.00	100%
Employer pension contribution (2%, Georgian residents only)	$60.00	2.00%
EOR service fee (HeroForce, Tier 2)	$600.00	20.00%
Estimated total monthly cost	~$3,660.00	~122.0%

HeroForce EOR service fee shown at USD $600 per employee per month (Tier 2 pricing), no setup fee. If the employee is a non-resident, the 2% pension contribution does not apply at all, further lowering total cost. Employee deductions (withheld separately) include the flat 20% income tax and, for residents, a matching 2% pension contribution.

Termination & Separation

Notice periods under the Labour Code are generally short by regional standards — commonly 30 days for redundancy-related dismissals — with severance pay of at least 1 month's salary required in most involuntary termination scenarios not attributable to the employee.
